TAKEN up, about one Mile from my Plantation, in St. Matthew's Parish, Berkley County, two NEGRO-FELLOWS, of the Guiney Country, who call themselves POMPEY and SAMBO: They are about five Feet ten Inches high, speak but very little English.—They say that their Master's Name is JAMES BUTLER, and lives by the Side of a River, and that their old Master lives on the other Side. By what I can learn by a Guiney Fellow of mine, they have been run away ever since the Spring before last. They are entirely naked, and their Feet and Legs are swelled very much by lying in the Cold; on which Account I thought it would not be prudent to send them to the Work-House. If the Owner of the above Fellows, should find any Difficulty in conveying a Letter to me, they may write to Mr. JAMES COURTONE, Jeweller, in CHARLES-TOWN. WILLIAM HEATLY.

EDINBURGH, OCTOBER 20.

WE hear from Glaſgow, that the gentlemen concerned in the Cambrick manufactories, lately eſtabliſhed there (in conſequence of the late act of parliament) have brought this valuable manufacture to the greateſt perfection; and that the Cambricks now made in that place are equal, if not ſuperior, to any foreign Cambricks ever imported.

LONDON, OCTOBER 30.

Letters from ſeveral parts of Germany, but more particularly the Electorate of Mentz, Treves, and Cologn, are full of complaints of the high price of proviſions, inſomuch that the peaſants, not being able to procure the neceſſaries of life, have been already driven to many acts of violence, and more dreadful conſequences are ſtill apprehended.

A general promotion of lieutenants will take place in a few days.

NOVEMBER 3.

People have formed very different ſentiments of the proceedings on Wedneſday at Weſtminſter-hall; and but few can account for the difference of ſentiment that had happened in the leaders of the aſſembly. Some have drawn this concluſion from it, that Mr. Wilkes has loſt his influence among the people; while others, with more juſtneſs, imagine the electors leaned to Mr. Sawbridge's opinion, through an apprehenſion of the conſequences which might have enſued in ſeeking redreſs by ſuch violent meaſures.

NOVEMBER 6.

Some further particulars relative to the taking of Bender, which arrived by letters yeſterday, are as follow: The town, upon a ſignal given, was attacked in three different places, the garriſon defended themſelves valiantly, and diſputed every inch of ground with great perſeverance: When they were beaten from the trenches, they fought from ſtreet to ſtreet in the town, and withſtood the Ruſſians for five hours after they took the citadel. The garriſon conſiſted at the beginning of the ſiege of near 30,000 men, but at the time of the aſſault were reduced to near half that number; 400 cannon were found in the town, beſide an immenſe booty. Baron Stein, who reſided in London about five years ſince, and Col. Maller were both killed in the attack.

NOVEMBER 8.

Yeſterday morning the Princeſs Dowager of Wales arrived at Carlton-houſe from Germany.

The following is a copy of the Addreſs, Remonſtrance, and Petition, from the Electors of the city and liberty of Weſtminſter, preſented to his Majeſty yeſterday at St. James's, by Sir Robert Barnard.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

AS long as we have any confidence left in the integrity of your Majeſty's intentions, and in the ſincerity of your declarations, we cannot ceaſe moſt humbly, though earneſtly, to implore your royal interpoſition in behalf of a loyal and much injured people. We have already petitioned your Majeſty for a diſſolution of Parliament. That power is wiſely and inconteſtably placed by the conſtitution in your Majeſty, for the benefit of your people. There are but two ſituations in which it can be exerciſed, —either when the people are diſſatisfied, or when they are ſatisfied with the conduct of their repreſentatives. If your Majeſty means wholly to decline this power, as irreconcilable with the principles of the conſtitution, the people will loſe a conſtitutional remedy: If your Majeſty means to retain it, and to exerciſe it only in the latter caſe, as it has been very recently, and without any ſcruple, exerciſed over the American aſſemblies, it can never be a benefit, but, on the contrary, muſt be a grievous injury to your ſubjects. Your faithful city and liberty of Weſtminſter do therefore moſt earneſtly implore your Majeſty to exert it now, when the whole kingdom is moſt juſtly and generally offended with the conduct of this Parliament.

With the moſt dutiful reſpect to your Majeſty, and with the moſt inviolable attachment to your royal perſon and family, we beg leave to repreſent to your Majeſty, that the redreſs of every grievance, the ſecurity of all our violated rights, the relief of all our ſufferings, the prayer of every petition, the reſtoration of unanimity, harmony and peace, (ſo often recommended by your Majeſty from the throne) are all entirely in your Majeſty's power to beſtow; for the injuries we have ſuſtained, and the evils of which we complain, have been voted and produced by your Majeſty's own miniſters, officers and ſervants, and by thoſe members of Parliament eſpecially who are under the immediate influence of the crown.

Your Majeſty has long been ſo happily ſituated, as to have a choice of means to give redreſs and contentment to your people, either by removing ſuch of your ſervants who have done the wrong (inſtead of diſmiſſing thoſe who refuſed their concurrence,) or by diſſolving the preſent Parliament; that ſo, ſince no adequate proviſion has hitherto been made to prevent the crown and its miniſters from chuſing all their ſervants and dependants from amongſt the repreſentatives of the people, the people, by a freſh election, may have an opportunity of chuſing for their repreſentatives thoſe who ſhall not be the ſervants and dependents of the crown and its miniſters.

By the choice of independent, unbiaſſed, and real repreſentatives of the people, and by the meaſures which ſuch men will naturally take for our ſecurity, we truſt, under the good providence of God, that we ſhall not continue to ſee, in this kingdom, electors denied the right of election, juries denied the right of judgment, and petitioners denied the right of complaint.

NOVEMBER 10.

The following Aldermen accompanied the Right Hon. Braſs Croſby, when he went yeſterday in the uſual manner to Weſtminſter to be ſworn in before the Barons of the Exchequer, viz. Stephenſon, Turner, Peers, Kite, Shakeſpear, Halifax, Kirkman, Bird, and Wilkes; the latter went in Mr. Alderman Oliver's coach, and was much huzza'd by the populace. Many of the nobility and gentry dined with the Lord Mayor, the above Aldermen, &c. at Guildhall, where the company was numerous and brilliant.

This morning Mr. Serjeant Glynn moved in the court of Common Pleas for a rule to ſhew cauſe why the verdict againſt Mr. Horne ſhould not be ſet aſide; when after a hearing, the court granted the rule.—It remains now for the court to conſider, whether the words in the two accounts in the proſecution are actionable, as on that depends the force of the verdict.

The command of the regiment of grey horſe, the late Duke of Argyll's, was yeſterday noon conferred on the Earl of Panmure.

It is ſaid his Lordſhip will, notwithſtanding the above appointment, keep his preſent command of the two battalions of the Royal Scots.

NOVEMBER 15.

The humble ADDRESS of the HOUSE of COMMONS, to the KING.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE, your majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal ſubjects, the Commons of Great-Britain, in parliament aſſembled, return your majeſty our moſt humble thanks, for your moſt gracious ſpeech from the throne.

We beg leave to offer your majeſty our congratulations, on the happy delivery of her majeſty, and on the birth of another princeſs; eſteeming every encreaſe of your majeſty's royal family an additional ſecurity, for the continuance of that happineſs which we have already experienced under its auſpicious government.

Among the many proofs we have received of your majeſty's conſtant attention to the welfare and proſperity of your people, your majeſty's earneſt deſire to continue to us the bleſſings of peace, could not fail to inſpire us with ſentiments of gratitude and affection. But we could have reaped little real ſatisfaction from the enjoyment of thoſe bleſſings, had we not, at the ſame time, been able to place the juſteſt confidence in your majeſty, that you would never be induced, by a miſtaken tenderneſs for the preſent eaſe of your people, to ſacrifice their moſt eſſential and more laſting intereſts. Theſe we cannot but conſider as having been dangerouſly ſtruck at, by the violence lately committed, by a Spaniſh governor, upon one of your majeſty's poſſeſſions. Under theſe circumſtances, your majeſty's determination to make an immediate demand, from the court of Spain, of ſuch ſatisfaction as you had a right to expect, and, at the ſame time, to direct the neceſſary preparations to be made, without delay, for enabling your majeſty to do yourſelf juſtice, in caſe your requiſition to the court of Spain ſhould fail to procure it, demands our moſt hearty acknowledgmenss. And we rejoice to find, that your majeſty will not diſcontinue theſe preparations, until you ſhall have received a proper reparation for the injury, as well as ſatisfactory proof that other powers are equally ſincere with your majeſty, in the reſolution to preſerve the general tranquility. In the proſecution of this your majeſty's purpoſe, your majeſty will not be diſappointed in your expectation of receiving, from your faithful Commons, every degree of ſupport, which, in the progreſs of this very important buſineſs, ſhall become requiſite. With this view, we will enter, without delay, into the conſideration of the ſupplies for the enſuing year. And whatever extraordinary expences the public ſervice ſhall require, we will chearfully provide for, in ſuch manner as may be leaſt burthenſome to your majeſty's ſubjects.

In conſidering the ſtate of your majeſty's colonies in North-America, we will neglect no means of ſecuring the commercial intereſt of this kingdom, or of providing for the protection of your majeſty's good ſubjects there from every degree of violence and oppreſſion.

We return your majeſty our unfeigned thanks, for the timely precautions you have uſed, for guarding againſt the introduction of that fatal contagion which has of late appeared in ſome of the diſtant parts of Europe. And while, with your majeſty, we place our ultimate reliance upon the divine providence, for ourp reſervation from ſo great a calamity, we ſhall conſider it as our indiſpenſable duty, to make uſe of every reaſonable precaution which human foreſight can ſuggeſt to us.

We aſſure your majeſty, that we will apply ourſelves, with all due diligence, to the diſpatch of public buſineſs; in which we will not fail ſteadily to purſue thoſe great ends recommended to us by your majeſty, in your ſpeech from the throne, as well as by your royal example. And if any hopes ſhould have been conceived, or it may have been any where ſurmiſed, that, among your majeſty's people, there were any ſuch differences ſubſiſting, as could, in the leaſt degree, abate the ardour of their affectionate attachment for your majeſty, or prevent their joining as one man, in ſeconding your majeſty's views, for maintaining unſullied the luſtre of your crown, and preſerving undiminiſhed the rights of your people, we doubt not, by our proceedings, to convince the world, how falſe and injurious are ſuch ſurmiſes; and to make it manifeſt that, whenever we are called upon in the cauſe of our King and Country, there will be but one heart and one voice among your faithful Commons.

To be SOLD,

(Or, EXCHANGED for NEGROES)

A TRACT of TIDE-SWAMP, on the Island of ARGYLE, seven Miles above the Town of Savannah, containing (as imagined) near Seven Hundred Acres: Near 250 cleared and completely banded in, with Buildings of every Kind suitable for a Plantation, equal at least to any in this Province; a Machine, that beats six large Barrels of Rice per Day, may be bought with the Place, if agreeable to the Purchaser; with near TWENTY Head of MILCH CATTLE.

The Situation of this Plantation admits of receiving the Tide from two Rivers at once, so that there is no Doubt of watering your Field every Fortnight, if required.

The Value of this Settlement is well known to Numbers, and needs no other Recommendation, than referring those who incline to buy to view it.—No Inducement would have been sufficient for the Owner's parting with it, but its being on an Island will not admit of his turning his Stock to that Advantage, which he can do on the Lands he has elsewhere.

WILLIAM WILLIAMSON.
